Wynkoop Family.

WYNKOOP FAMILY;

A

PRELIMINARY GENEALOGY,

BY

RICHARD WYNKOOP,

Of the City of New York.

NEW YORK:
PRESS OF WYNKOOP & HALLENBECK,
113 FULTON STREET.
1866.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1866, by
RICHARD WYNKOOP,
In the Clerk's Office, of the Southern District of New York.

PREFACE.

This compilation is printed and circulated to awaken interest in the subject, and secure materials for a more thorough genealogy. Some members of the family have shown indifference; others were unknown, or inaccessible; and, in consequence, a large part of this pamphlet is a mere record of names. Conjecture or doubtful authority were necessarily resorted to in some instances. Conscientious care has been bestowed to avoid errors, and to give due mention of each individual.

No blot upon the family name has been discovered; and of the many individuals here recorded, only one or two have caused regret that relationship must be acknowledged.

The Compiler solicits additional information, and the correction of errors. Communications may be addressed to him at No. 119 Broadway, New York.

Copies of records in family Bibles are especially desired. Dates and places of births, of baptisms, of marriages, and of deaths—places of residence, occupations, names of parents and children, maiden names of mothers and wives—would be useful. Facts of trifling interest in themselves might be valuable for the purpose of establishing identity. Extended information as to ancestors and collateral relatives might serve to corroborate statements herein contained, which rest at present upon doubted authority.

RICHARD WYNKOOP.

New York, January, 1866.

(Hist. N. Y. Brod., i., 390; H. N. N., i., 339; A. of A., i., 196–199; iv., 56.) It does not appear whether Wynkoop returned with the vessel, or remained in this country.

In the same year Peter Wynkoop was commissioned by the Patroon to purchase from the natives land about Catskill; and in connection with the Commissary General, Arendt Van Curler, to recover lands, etc., which had been purchased, and misappropriated by a former agent, Adrian Van der Donck. (H. N. N., i., 339.)

The foregoing statements seem to apply to but one person. It has been impossible to trace him further.

SECOND GENERATION.

Cornelius Wynkoop, in 1671, was Elder of a Dutch Church at Esopus, over which Hermanus Blom had labored as Pastor.

On the 25th of April, 1663, he received a grant of twelve morgens of land at Esopus, Ulster county. (H. N. N., ii., 592.) The morgen seems to have been equivalent to a little more than two acres. This land is said to have been at New Dorp, now Hurley.

He removed from Albany to Hurley in 1664. The same year he hired some land of Albert Gysbert, for the price of a pair of horses—400 guilders.

His wife was Marritje Jans. The baptismal records of some of their children have been found at Kingston. She is said to be the "Orphan Daughter," whose name is recorded in a list of immigrants from Holland, who arrived in the Gilded Beaver, March 1660. (Doc. Hist. N. Y., iii., 56.) Marritje Jansen, maiden, arrived on the Love, in the same month. (Same authority.) The names Marritje, Maria, and Mary, are said to be the same. (A. of A., iii., 114.) This leaves the question of identity open. She was still living in 1678, as her name appears in that year in a list of church members.

In 1673, he was Schepen of Hurley, Ulster county. (Doc. Rel. to Col. Hist. N. Y., ii., 626.)

On the 5th of February, 1674, he witnessed the signatures of Indian Sachems to a treaty with Col. Nicolls. (Col. Uls. Hist. Soc., i., 63.) He died in 1674.

The removal of this Cornelius from Albany to Esopus, as above stated—a tradition, preserved through another channel, that he first settled at Albany—and a comparison of dates—make it probable that he was son of the Peter, above mentioned, and the fact is so assumed, though it is uncertain.

A tradition preserved in the family Bible of Judge Henry Wynkoop, of Pennsylvania, is as follows:—Cornelius C. Wynkoop, a young bachelor, migrated from Utrecht in the United Dutch Netherlands, early in the 17th Century, to Manhadoes, now New York, and soon after settled at Vertrange (Fort Orange), now Albany. Here he erected certain water works, but his knowledge of the streams was defective, and a sudden rise of the waters destroyed his works. After this disaster, here moved from Albany to Esopus, where he remained as a farmer, until his death. He left four sons, Everardus, Johannes, Gerardus, and Benjamin. The first two remained at Esopus, as farmers; Gerardus with his family removed to Pennsylvania in 1717; and the youngest, Benjamin, a silversmith, settled in New York.

THIRD GENERATION.

Children of Cornelius Wynkoop and Marritje Jans.

Johannes (John): he is said to have married Margartje Elmendorf; but this is doubtful. He did marry Judith Bloodgoodt—or Blodgart, (B. R. of K.)—probably Bloodgood. And it is likely that he had for a second (if not third wife) Cornelia Tenbroock. (B. R. of K.) He took the oath of allegiance to the British, in 1689, in Ulster county. (D. H. N. Y., i., 279.) He was known as Major Johannes Wynkoop, freeholder of Kingston, in 1728. (Same, iii., 969.) The same year he was classed with "Old officers and old men" in a "List of commanding officers, as well military as civil." (Same 972.) In 1731 he was Sheriff of Ulster county. (Same, i., 694: C. U. H. S., i., 99.)

Evert: he married Geertje (Gertrude), daughter of Jacobus Elmendorf. In the baptismal records her name is usually written Geertje, but once it is given as Greetje (Margaret). He seems subsequently to have married Antje Kiersted, a descendant of Anneke Jans, whose name is well known in connection with the claims against the corporation of Trinity Church. She is recorded as a widow, in a list of slaveholders, at Hurley, in 1755. (D. H. N. Y., iii., 847.)

He took the oath of allegiance in Ulster county, in 1698. (D. H. N. Y., i., 279.)

His name occurs as a freeholder of Kingston in 1728. (D. H. N. Y., iii., 969.)

Gerritt: his wife, according to the baptismal records of Kingston and Albany, was Hilletje (Hail) Gerritse.

He took the oath of allegiance, in Ulster county, in 1689. In 1700 he was Ensign of a foot company in the counties of Ulster and Duchess, under Coenrad Elmendorf, Captain. (D. H. N. Y., i., 363.) In 1712 he was a Deacon of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church in Kingston, and, as such, joined in a petition, May 1st, for the incorporation of a Dutch Church. (D. H. N. Y., iii., 967.)

In 1717 he removed with his family to the township of Moreland, then in the county of Philadelphia, now Montgomery, Pennsylvania. His wife, at this time, was Helena Elte, or, Else. (F. B. of H. W.) She may have been a second wife, or her name may have been differently written after her removal. Perhaps the tradition incorporated in the Bible record was incorrect.

Claes: baptized at Kingston in 1668. This name should probably be Klaas—Nicholas.

Catharine: baptized at Kingston in 1671 or 1672.

Benjamin: baptized at Kingston, November 5, 1673. He was a silversmith, and settled in New York, and married Femmetje Van Der Heul, October 22, 1697. (C. M. N. Y., 1862, 651; M. R. D. C.)

In 1698 he was admitted a freeman of New York city. (H. N. Y., Val. 377.) He is recorded as having voted in the South Ward, Sept. 29, 1701. (C. M. N. Y., 1857, 520.) He is mentioned as head of a family in 1703. (D. H. N. Y., i., 615.) The baptismal record of his children is to be found in New York city.

He is said to have married Anne Elmendorf. This seems to be a mistake; yet he may have married and lost her, before his removal to New York.

FOURTH GENERATION.

Children of Johannes Wynkoop and Judith Bloodgoodt.

Cornelius: baptized at Kingston, Jan. 4, 1688. This Cornelius was probably the person who was husband of Barbara Mathyson, or Matzeze, in 1709 and 1710: though she may have married Cornelius, son of Evert and Geertje. It is likewise uncertain which Cornelius was the one who married Hendrica (Henrietta) Niewkerk, December 14, 1711. It is asserted that she was the husband of the other Cornelius. (H. H. R.) It is not known that both of them survived infancy.

Maria: baptized at Kingston, April 23, 1693.

Children of Johannes Wynkoop and Cornelia Ten Broeck

All of them were baptized at Kingston.

Christina: baptized March 14, 1697.

Dirck: baptized Nov. 6, 1698; born Nov. 1, 1698; married Geertjen Kool, or Cool, July 3, 1725; removed to Hurley, April 20, 1732; died 1763.

Catharina: baptized January 19, 1701.

Johannes: baptized Oct. 14, 1702. He died August 8, 1791, aged 88 years and 10 months. (Kingston tombstone.)

Lydia: baptized February 21, 1714.

Children of Evert Wynkoop and Geertje Elmendorf.

Cornelius: baptized at Kingston, October 13, 1689. He is said to have married Hendrickjen (or Hendrica, called also Gendrica,) Newkerk. See Cornelius, son of Johannes and Judith above. Je and ken are diminutives, or the names of females. (A. of A., iii., 114.)

Nicholas: baptized at Kingston, April —, 1693.

Grietje (Margaret): baptized at Kingston, January 2, 1695.

Maritje (Mary): baptized at Kingston, September 11, 1697.

Anna: baptized at Kingston, April 23, 1702.

Yeola: baptized at Albany, 1705. (A. of A.)

Children of Evert Wynkoop and Antje Kiersted.

All recorded as baptized at Kingston, except Antje.

Johannes: baptized October 12, 1707. He married December 19, 1728, Maria Bogardus, who was born April 13, 1709. (C. C. K.) She was a descendant of Rev. Everardus Bogardus, who was husband of Anneka Jans. Johannes was Sheriff of Ulster county. (D. H. N. Y. i., 694.)

Antje: born 1709; married Johannis Swart. (C. C. K.)

Tobias: baptized May 7, 1710; died in infancy.

Maretjen: baptized August 10, 1712.

Hezekiah: born 1714 (C. C. K.); baptized January 23, 1715. He seems to have married Marritje Davenport.

Tobias: baptized April 28, 1717. He seems to have married Leah Legh.

Children of Gerritt Wynkoop and Hilletje Gerritse.

All of them baptized at Kingston except Nicholas.

Marietje (Mary): baptized January 3, 1694. She married Abraham Vandegrift, of Bensalem. (F. B. of H. W.)

Jacomyntje: baptized March 22, 1696. She married George Buskirk, of Moreland; and was called Jemima. (F. B. of H. W.) She is also called Jacomina. (A. M. A.)

Annetje (Ann): baptized August 21, 1698; married Isaac Van Metre, of Salem, N. J., and settled on the South Branch of the Potomac, Va.

Cornelius: baptized January 1, 1701.

Gerritt: baptized November 29, 1702. Effort has been made, without success, to trace this Gerritt. He is said to have been father of Gerardus, who married Elizabeth (or Mary) Bennet; but though this is possible, it is uncertain.

Nicholas, baptized at Albany, 1705. (A. of A.: J. Munsell.) He was born February 9, 1705, and on the 20th of September, 1732, he married Ann, daughter of Henry Knipers of Hersymas, Bergen county, New Jersey. He died August 3, 1759. His wife was born March 20, 1712, and died March 21, 1773. (F. B. of H. W.)

Hendricus: baptized October 19, 1707.

Philippus: baptized 11, 1709.

Tobias: baptized May 3, 1713. He seems to have died previous to 1717, for he is not mentioned among the children, who were taken to Pennsylvania, according to the Bible record of Judge Henry Wynkoop.

Children of Benjamin Wynkoop and Femmetje Van der Heul.

All of them were baptized in New York. (C. M. N. Y., 1864.)

Cornelius: baptized December 1, 1699. (B. R. D. C.) Died in infancy.

Cornelius: baptized June 22, 1701. He married Elizabeth Van der Spiegel, May 9, 1743. (C. M. N. Y., 1862.) He was admitted a freeman of New York in 1726. (H. N. Y., Val. 377.

Abraham: baptized July 4, 1703.

Benjamin: baptized March 3, 1705; he was baptized in May. His wife was Eunice Burr. (B. R. D. C.)

Catharina: baptized June 29, 1707.

Johannes: baptized September 14, 1712.

Maria: baptized August 29, 1714.

FIFTH GENERATION.

Children of Cornelius Wynkoop, Jr., and Barbara Mathysson.

Evert: baptized at Kingston, 11, 1709. This must be the Evert Wynkoop, Jr., whose birth is recorded in his own family Bible, on the 29th day of January, 1709. (His Bible, printed at Amsterdam, in 1714, is now in the possession of the Compiler of this book, who is his great-great-grandson.) On the 3d of May, 1730, he married Arriantje (Arrietta) Schepmoes, daughter of Dirck and Margaret Schepmoes, who was born November 12, 1706, and died March 26, 1779. Evert was a Captain in the Old French War, and returned home sick of camp fever, of which he died September 16, 1757. His tombstone at Kingston is still in good preservation, and it bears the following inscription: "Here lies the body of Captain Evert Wynkoop, who departed this life the 16th day of September, Anno Domini 1757 in the 49th year of his age."

Tjaatje: baptized at New York city, October 8, 1710.

Children of Cornelius Wynkoop and Hendrica Niewwkirk.

Judith: baptized at Kingston, August 31, 1712.

Elizabeth: baptized at Kingston, January 9, 1715.

Cornelia: baptized at Kingston, February 17, 1717.

Johannes: baptized at Kingston, August 16, 1719.

Catrina: baptized at Kingston, February 11, 1722.

Adrian: baptized at Kingston, August 21, 1726. He seems to have married Catharina Low; and they appear to have been baptismal witnesses in New York city, in 1765 and 1794. (B. R. D. C.) He left his whole estate to his wife and to his nephew, John C. It is, therefore, probable that he had no children.

Cornelius (C.); baptized November 5, 1732. (H. H R.) He married Mary Catharine Roel, April 24, 1760. (C. M., N. Y., 1862, p. 651). Her name was also written Ruehle. (N. Y. M. iii., 112). This was probably the "shopkeeper," who was admitted a freeman of New York City in 1770. (C. M. N Y., 1856, p. 501.)

Petrus and Maria: baptized at Kingston, November 15, 1734.

Children of Dirck Wynkoop and Geertje Kool or Cool; whose baptisms, here stated, were at Kingston.

Catrina: born May 20, 1726; died aged 20 years (P. V. G.) baptized April 22, 1726.

Janneken: born May 21, 1728; died aged 12 (P. V. G.) baptized May 26, 1728.

Cornelia: born June 30, 1730; died aged one year, (P. V. G.).

Cornelia 2d: born May 13, 1732 (P. V. G.)

Cornelius: born March 5, 1734 (P. V. G.). Probably the husband of Leah Dubois and Anne Gansevoort.

Johannes: born January 30, 1737; died aged 47 years and 10 months, (P. V. G.); baptized February 5, 1736.

Dirck: born February 23, 1738 (P. V. G.); baptized February 26, 1738.

Ephraim: born March 10, 1740; died aged 3 months (P. V. G.); baptized March 4, 1740.

Hendricus: born October 18, 1741; died aged 5 years. (P. V. G.); baptized November 4, 1741.

Jannetjen: born May 11, 1744 (P. V. G.); baptized May 13, 1744.

Cathrina: born October 16,1747 (P. V. G.); baptized October 18, 1747.

Children of John Wynkoop and Maria Bogardus.

Their baptisms are found recorded at Kingston, except of the first two.

Johannes: baptized 1729 (C. C. K.)

Tjatje: equivalent to Charity (C. E. W.), born November 19, 1731. She married, November 1, 1754, Dirck Wynkoop, son of Capt. Evert Wynkoop. She died November 17, 1757 (F. B. of E. W.)

Cornelia: baptized April 28, 1734.

Maria: baptized March 28, 1736.

Christina: baptized January 8, 1738.

Catrina: baptized April 22, 1739.

Annantjen: baptized May 18, 1741.

Elizabeth: baptized March 22, 1744.

Petrus: baptized the same day. He married Maria Van Alstyne. He lived at Clermont; afterward at Kinderhook; and removed to Kingston in 1796, where his son Abram still resides. (A. W.) He died February 3, 1818. (Kingston tombstone.)

Lydia: baptized February 19, 1749.

Geertje: baptized May 24, 1752.

Children of Hezekiah Wynkoop and Marritje Davenport.

Cathrina: baptized at Kingston, December 20, 1741.

Evert: baptized at Kingston, September 25, 1743.

Children of Tobias Wynkoop and Leah Legh.

Baptisms recorded at Kingston.

Cornelius (D.) baptized April 25, 1742. He was perhaps the Cornelius D. who married Leah Dubois, about April 10, 1762. (N. Y. M. vi. 98.) And he appears to have subsequently married Anne Gansevoort. See Cornelius, son of Dirck and Geertje.

Annatje: baptized November, 11, 1744.

Hezekiah: baptized June 3, 1750. He is said to have died aged 87. (T. W.). He was probably the husband of Elizabeth Diederick.

William: baptized March 4, 1753. He is said to have died single, aged 89 years (T. W.)

Tobias: baptised August 13, 1758. He seems to have died aged 91. (T. W.)

Petrus: baptized August 10, 1760.
Leah: married Peter Brill. (C. C. K.)
Maria: married Christian Meyer. (C. C. K.)

Child of Gerritt Wynkoop.

Gerardus: It is believed, though the fact is not established, that this Gerardus was son of Gerritt, which Gerritt was son of Gerritt and Hilletje Gerritse. He married Elizabeth Bennet. He was an officer of the Revolutionary Army. His residence was in Bucks county, Pennsylvania. He was Speaker of the Assembly of Pennsylvania for nineteen years. He died in 1812. (M. B. W. & S. R. S.) His wife is also called Mary. (C. L. W.)

Children of Nicholas Wynkoop and Ann Knipers.

Helena: born February 8, 1734. (F. M. W.)

Henry: born March 2. (O. S.) 1737. He married Miss Cummings of New Jersey; (A. M. A.) and afterward, September 10, 1761, Susanna, only daughter of John Wanshaer, and Christiana Egberts, of Essex county, New Jersey. [Her name is also written Wansaer.] She was born October 29th, 1742; and died August 26, 1776. (F. M. W.) On the 21st day of April 1782, he married Sarah Newkirk, of Pittsgrove, New Jersey. (S. R. W.) She died June 28, 1813, aged 71. (F. B. of H. W.)

He served as a Lieutenant in the Revolutionary Army; and he was a member of the First Provincial Conference of Pennsylvania, which met at Carpenter's Hall, Philadelphia, June 18, 1776. His house was distinguished as the home of Col. Monroe, during the time when the latter was disabled by a wound received at the battle of Trenton. A letter from General Washington, addressed to his friend Wynkoop, procured these hospitable quarters for the Colonel. President Monroe, in a letter dated March 26, 1824, expressed the most lively gratitude for the kindness received during an interesting period of our Revolutionary War. (W. B. W.)

He was a member of the First Provincial Congress; and the personal friend of Alexander Hamilton. (A. M. A.)

He was a member of the First Congress of the United States which met at New York, 1789. (Republican Court, page 166.)

He was an Associate Justice of the Court of Common Pleas of Bucks county, Pennsylvania. (S. R. W.)

It is said that Washington favored the giving of an honorable title to the President, and that on one occasion he asked General Muhlenburgh what he thought of styling the President, High Mightiness. The General answered:—"If all the incumbents should have the commanding size and presence of yourself, or of my friend Wynkoop (who was present), the title might be appropriate; but if applied to some lesser men, it would provoke ridicule." (Republican Court, page 153.)

Children of Cornelius Wynkoop and Elizabeth Vander Spiegel.

Jacobus: born about 1721. (Tomb inscription at Albany. He was baptized at New York, March 3, 1725; and was husband of Alida Coens or Koens. (B. R. D. C.) He was a "skipper" [sea captain] and married Alida Myers [Coens not Myers], of Curacoa; who was born October 11, 1736. His father was a wine merchant of New York city. Jacobus removed to Ulster county. He, with his family, left Esopus for Albany about two weeks before the British destroyed Esopus. (E. W. of A.) His wife died October 16, 1794, aged 58 years and five days; and he died May 4, 1795, aged 74. (Tomb inscriptions; A. of A., vi. 198.) Possibly he was the person who, in 1778, joined in a petition of the inhabitants of Rochester, Ulster County, for protection against the Indians. (C. of U. H. S., i., 58.)

Femmetje: baptized at New York, October 19, 1726.

Benjamin: baptized at New York, December 21, 1729.

Cornelius: baptized the same day. He seems to have been the husband of Abigail Osburne.

Anna: baptized July 29, 1733.

Child of Benjamin Wynkoop, Jr., and Eunice Burr.

Benjamin: baptized at New York, April 9, 1732.

SIXTH GENERATION.

Children of Evert Wynkoop and Arriaentje Schepmoes.

Cornelius: born March 1, 1731; died April 21, 1741. (F. B. of E. W.)

Dirck, (Richard): born October 15, 1732; married, November 1, 1754, Tjaatje (Charity), daughter of Johannes Wynkoop and Maria Bogardus. She was born November 19, 1731, and died November 17, 1757. On the 13th of December, 1760, he married Sarah, daughter of Petrus Smedes. She was born December 8, 1737. Dirck died December 9, 1796. (F. B. of E. W.; N. Y. M., iii., 422.) A transcript from the baptismal records of Kingston states the date of his baptism as September 22, 1732; but this seems erroneous as to the month.

He was a member of the Second Provincial Congress, which met at New York, November 14, 1775. (Col. of Ulster Hist-S., i., 120.)

When the British burned Esopus, some of the public papers in Mr. Bancker's charge at Judge Wynkoop's house, on the corner of Pearl and Fair streets, were removed only a few moments before a party of Red-coats began to plunder the buildings. (Same, 138.)

Judge Dirck Wynkoop was an estimable gentleman, and one of the most active and noted persons in Ulster county during the Revolution. While a member of the Committee of Safety, he was sent to the Provincial Congress of 1775; served in the Assembly in 1780–81; in 1788 became a member of the State Convention, to which was submitted the Federal Constitution. He was appointed, by ordinance of the Convention of 1777, an associate with Levi Pawling, named First Judge, and from 1783 he held for ten years the office of First Judge of the county. (Same, 69.)

An obituary notice was published in the "Rising Sun" of Kingston, December 16, 1796, in the following terms:

"Died, at his house in Kingston, on Friday Evening the 9th inst., the Hon. Dirck Wynkoop, one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, for the County of Ulster, in the 65th year of his age. In the discharge of his judicial duties Judge Wynkoop ever supported the strictest integrity and impartiality. In our national councils, to which the voice of his country had often called him, the firm Whig and independent Patriot ever marked his political career. In domestic life he was an affectionate husband and an indulgent parent. He bore the pains of an excruciating disorder with Christian firmness and resignation, and his candle went out in peace with God and man."

His tombstone, which is in good preservation, stands beside that of his father in the graveyard of the First Dutch Church.

His silver box, for smoking tobacco, descended to the Compiler. The lid is embossed with the representation of a Holland feast.

Peter: born November 16, 1739; baptized November 18, 1739; died August 17, 1746. (F. B. of E. W.)

Cornelius (E.): born July 4, 1746; baptized July 6, 1746. He married Cornelia Mancius, August 22, 1766. He lived at Marbletown, Ulster county, and died there September 19, 1795, and was buried at the new church at that place. (F. B. of E. W.; C. M. N. Y., 1862, 651; N. Y. M., x., 79.) He was a Major in the Revolutionary Army.

Children of Cornelius C. Wynkoop and Maria Catharina Roel.

All of whom, except the last two, were baptized at New York

John C.: baptized January 21, 1761. He married Lydia Silvester. (F. S. W.) He died July 25, 1796. (Kingston tombstone.)

Maria: baptized July 4, 1762.

Catharina: baptized November, 10, 1763,

George Pieterson: baptized July 17, 1765.

Anna Sabina: baptized July 13, 1766; married Hendricus Schoonmaker.

Elizabeth: baptized December 3, 1769.

Cornelius: baptized May 14, 1772; died single. (F. S. W.)

Henrietta: baptized March 23, 1775. (H. H. R.)

Augustus: baptized at Kingston, October 10, 1777. He married Ann Maria Silvester, who died May 1, 1825. He died July 3, 1836. (F. S. W.)

Child of Petrus Wynkoop and Maria Van Alstyn.

Abram: born March 26, 1786; married Maria Vansteenburgh January 10, 1838. (A. W.) He lives at Kingston.

Children of Evert Wynkoop and Sarah Sorroway.

[This Evert was a farmer at Bethlehem, Albany county, and died there about 1810. (E. W.) It was not possible for the Compiler to identify him, although special efforts were made.]

Joshua: born September 19, 1770; married Margaret Aaronhout or Arnhout, who was born June 10, 1770. (F. B. of J. W.) He was a farmer at Bethlehem, and died there about 1858; his wife died about a year before. (E. W.)

John: married Arriantje . He lived at Bethlehem, and afterward at Cohoes Falls. (E. W.)

Elisha. He was a shoemaker; he died many years ago, a bachelor. (E. W.)

Children of Cornelius D. Wynkoop and Leah Dubois.

Dirck C.: born April 4, 1763 (P. V. G.); baptized at Kingston.

Children of the same Cornelius D., and of Ann Gansevoort.

Gertrude: born December 26, 1781. (P. V. G.) Baptized: Geretje, at Kingston, March 28, 1782. Died in infancy.

SEVENTH GENERATION.

Children of Dirck Wynkoop and Tjaatje (born) Wynkoop.

Peter: born December 27, 1755; baptized at Kingston, January 1, 1756. (F. B. of E. W.) During the Revolution he met Margaret, daughter of John Quackenbos, of New York, who had left the city because of its occupation by the British. They were married on the 19th of December, 1785, and settled in New York. She was born March 20, 1765, and died at New York city, May 5, 1851. He first engaged in the manufacture of sea-biscuit; afterwards of tobacco, at 22 Roosevelt street. About 1818 he entered the Custom House, as measurer, where he remained until a few years before his death, which took place January 26, 1835. He was six feet two inches in stature. (H. D.)

From him descended to the Compiler a plate for printing the family coat-of-arms, which lacks the motto, but corresponds in other respects substantially with the engravings upon silver ware, preserved in the Pennnsylvania branch of the family, one piece of which is in the possession of Mrs. Leonard M. Thorn, born Raguet, New York.

Maria: born September 3, 1757. (F. B. of E. W.) Baptized at Kingston, August 21, 1757. Died March 16, 1758.

Dirck: born June 17, 1775; baptized June 18, 1775; died December 6, 1775. (F. B. of E. W.)

Margreetje. (Margaret.) She was born March 27, 1778, at the house of her paternal uncle at Marbletown, and was baptized April 12, 1778, at Kingston. (F. B. of E. W.) She was commonly known as Miss Peggy. She commanded universal respect. Her death took place at Kingston, March 18, 1862, at the homestead. From her, as a token of special favor, the Compiler received the family Bible of her grandfather, Capt. Evert Wynkoop, and several other family relics. She left to one of her neighbors the carpenter's horses, which, in an emergency, had been used so support boards from which General Washington dined, her father's furniture and house having been destroyed by the British. Her memory was excellent, and she drew upon it freely to furnish materials for this genealogy.

Children of Cornelius E. Wynkoop and Cornelia Mancius.

Evert: who married Rachel Hardenburg. (C. E. W.)

Cornelia: she married Benjamin Hardenburg, who lived at Hurley, Ulster county. He was a lawyer and a Representative in Congress. At his death he probably resided in Albany. (H. D.)

Children of Augustus Wynkoop and Ann Maria Silvester.

Mary Jane: She married Henry H. Reynolds, who is cashier of the State of New York National Bank of Kingston. He contributed to the material for this genealogy a valuable transcript from the baptismal records of Kingston, beside other matter; and he introduced the Compiler to the family of Rev. Dr. J. C. Hoes, of Kingston, and to Major Peter Van Garrsbeck, of the same place, through whose courtesy additional information was obtained.

Augustus: born in New York city. He settled at Kinderhook. His wife was Anna Whiting. He died January 18, 1862, and she died August 16, 1863. (F. S. W.)

Francis S.: He married Sarah F. Elenendorf. He is a manufacturer of varnish, and a resident of the city of New York. From him information has been directly and indirectly obtained for this genealogy, and he has contributed to the expense of publication.

Catharine B.: married John M. Keese. She died January 6, 1842. (F. S. W.)

Henrietta, (F. S. W.), Elizabeth. She died April 1, 1824 (F. S. W.)

Francis Murray: born 1820 (A. M. A.), near Newtown, Bucks county, Penn. At one time he was an editor and practical printer in Pottsville.

He was Colonel of a regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers in the war against Mexico. He was at the capture of Vera Cruz, and in the battles of Cerro Gordo and Huemantla, and was actively engaged in numerous skirmishes. He was civil and military Governor of Perote.

In recognition of his services, President Pierce appointed him U. S. Marshal of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. He had been a whig, but he left that party because of their opposition to the war.

On his retirement from office on the accession of Buchanan, he removed to his new residence on the line of the Catawissa railroad, in the northeasterly corner of Schuylkill county. He had married in 1850, Anna, daughter of Major Levi Twiggs, who fell at Chepultepec.

On the 13th of December, 1857, while he was hunting birds to tempt the appetite of his wife, who was in ill health, he was accidentally shot and died in a few minutes. He left no children.
